

Chip Shop Chomp Challenge.

This challenge was designed to help us spread the word about Guiding.

We want units to do 2 things:

1. Get Out and About to raise awareness.
2. Have fun as a group, eating.

1. Get Prepared

The first thing you need to do is make a map!

Make a list all your local chip shops and takeaways that sell chips within walking distance.

Plan a walking route to get around your chip shops. We recommend having 3-5 stops. Guides and Rangers might like to plan the chomp route themselves. Identify hazards on the route, like roads and bodies of water.

Don't have any nearby chip shops? No problem.

Just do your chomp differently. To get the badge, you need to get out and about & have fun eating.

Get out and about:

Go for a penny walk or similar around your area.

Have fun eating:

if your meeting space has a kitchen, purchase a few brands of oven chips and rate those instead!

2. Chomp Your Chips

For each different chip you chomp, we want you to rate its colour, smell, crunch, texture and taste out of 5. 5 being the best and 1 being the worst. More information on the ratings can be found on the back of this sheet.

You must try the chips naked. Not you, the chips! No vinegar, ketchup, mayo or any other topping!

Chip Shop Name	Colour	Smell	Crunch	Texture	Taste	TOTAL SCORE

We want you to rate your chips ,on a number of criteria, from 1 to 5. 5 means the best and 1 means the worst

Is it that golden brown colour that makes our mouth water or is it pale and undercooked?

Smell

Does it have that "fresh from the fryer" aroma or has the smell dissipated because it's been sitting around too long?

Crunch

Is it perfectly crispy on the outside and fluffy on the inside or is it limp and sad?
